A welcoming private retreat with an abundance of amenities located minutes to downtown Marshall and only a 30-minute drive to Asheville! From any room in the custom house, you can enjoy a long-range mountain view. Meticulously maintained open concept main house and guest quarters offers space for gatherings of all sizes. The property has been professionally landscaped with both native and well behaved exotic plants to provide year-round visual interest as well as raised garden beds, fruit trees, and berry bushes for enjoyment. Bring your horses to the fenced-in pasture!
